THE STORY OF

BALTIC APPEAL TO THE UNITED NATIONS

by
SIRJE
OKAS AINSO

This is the story of a group of resilient Baltic exiles, who didn't want to give up their parents' and their own dreams of one day being able to return to the free and independent homeland they had left behind. We refused to settle for the status quo. We wanted to find the way to reach the "Unreachable Dream".

This is how BATUN-Baltic Appeal to the United Nations-was born.
