Background and Project Description

Short-term exchange studies and full-time studies abroad represent a transformative experience that can broaden horizons, build skills, and create lasting connections with people from around the world. However, for many students, financial difficulties can make this opportunity seem out of reach. To address this issue, DON@ – Donation Opportunities for Newcomers project was started, helping students to reduce their expenses for the resettlement of life and living and facilitate the culture of sharing.

General Objective

Facilitate the integration and improvement of living conditions of students with fewer opportunities by promoting mutual support, inclusion, and sustainable development.

Target Audience

Exchange students, newcomers full-time international students, and local students, students' organizations

Specific Objectives

- Create a new dynamic around inclusion and solidarity in the universities
- Allow students with fewer opportunities to reduce their expenses
- Encourage mutual aid between students
- Reduce waste and carbon footprint in the universities

Key Activities

- Collection and Donation Days Events
- Digital platform for sharing essential items from students to students
- Good practice guide in 5 different languages
