The last Sunday of every month is for museums

It's so easy to dedicate at least one day a month to visiting museums and galleries, which is why we would like to remind you that entrance to museums and galleries in Vilnius managed by the Lithuanian Ministry of Culture is free of charge on the last Sunday of each month!

If you've ever had the privilege of gaining free entry to the Louvre on a Sunday, you can experience the same feeling at different places throughout Vilnius, including Gediminas Tower, the House of Histories, the Palace of the Grand Dukes of Lithuania, the Kazys Varnelis House-Museum, the National Gallery of Art, the Lithuanian Theatre, the Music and Cinema Museum, Radziwiłł Palace and the Vilnius Picture Gallery. Grab your children, friends or parents and enjoy some soul-enriching discoveries.
